Introduction

The Wellington Park Management Trust (the Trust) is a statutory authority established under the Wellington Park Act 1993 (the Act) to manage and maintain Wellington Park in accordance with the Act.

1 Purpose and Application

This Policy and separate Governance Procedures describes the governance arrangements approved by the Trust to administer its affairs in accordance with the Act and accepted governance practice. It applies to the Trust, its members and deputies, and management as appropriate and should be read in conjunction with the Act.

2 Definitions

The Act is The Wellington Park Act 1993.

The Park is Wellington Park as established under the Act.

Trust means the Wellington Park Management Trust as established under the Act.

Trust members are those persons who fill the positions set out in section 10 of the Wellington Park Act 1993, either ex officio or appointed by the Minister, and their deputies appointed by the Minister.

Management means managers and employees appointed by the Trust to administer its day to day operations under the direction of, and/or delegation from, the Trust.

Trust staff are persons who carry out activities in a paid or unpaid capacity under the direction of the Trust to meet the Trust's objectives. Trust staff includes, but is not limited to, Trust employees, volunteers, trainees and apprentices, work experience students, and those who are formally employed by another organisation or agency (such as contractors, subcontractors, consultants) but work for the Trust under formal arrangements with the other organisation or agency that allow them to represent themselves as agents of the Trust. Staff does not include external contractors, subcontractors or consultants engaged under a contract for specific purposes where the terms of their contract does not allow them to represent themselves as agents of the Trust.

3 Roles and Responsibilities

3.1 Trust Composition

Under the Act, the Trust comprises eight members, representing government, landowners in the Park and other key stakeholder organisations. Prescribed members are the Director-General of Lands or nominee, Director of National Parks and Wildlife or nominee, and the CEO of Tourism Tasmania or nominee. The Minister also appoints the independent Chairperson, two members nominated by Hobart City Council, one member nominated by Glenorchy City Council and one member nominated by the Hobart Regional Water Board (now TasWater).

Member organisations may nominate one deputy member for each of their members. The deputy of a Trust member is deemed to be a member when performing the duties of a member. A deputy is only to perform the duties of a member if the Trust member for whom he or she is deputy is unable (for any reason) to perform the duties of a member. In the event that both a member and their deputy attend a Trust meeting, only the appointed member has voting rights.

Non ex officio members and deputy members are appointed by the Minister under Instruments of Appointment which specify their tenure, responsibilities and conditions, including remuneration where applicable. Members and deputies are appointed for terms not exceeding three years but, if appropriately qualified, are eligible for reappointment.

Under section 10(2) of the Act, the Minister must appoint the nominees of Hobart City Council, Glenorchy City Council and TasWater.

The Minister may terminate a non ex officio member's appointment under the circumstances prescribed in Schedule 3(7) of the Act.

In relation to conflicts of interest Clause 4 of Schedule 3 of the Act prescribes that:

“ (1) If a member of the Trust has or acquires an interest (whether pecuniary or otherwise) that would conflict with the proper performance of the member's functions in relation to a matter being considered or about to be considered by the Trust, the member must disclose the nature of that interest at a meeting of the Trust.

(2) A disclosure under subclause (1) is to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the Trust and the member must not, unless the Trust otherwise determines –

GOVERNANCE POLICY

In general, the Trust will only consider allowing a member with a conflict of interest in a particular matter to remain in a meeting if it feels that the member may be able to provide information that would assist the Trust in its deliberations on that matter.

Sponsored travel should not be accepted without the prior approval of the Trust. Sponsored travel will only be approved if it is considered to be of benefit to the Trust, its activities and functions or otherwise involves a broader public benefit
